Since 1969, the Environmental Law Institute has played a pivotal role in shaping environmental law, policy, and management worldwide.

For information about ELI’s work and how to join, support the Institute as a member, subscriber, or donor please visit our website at www.eli.org.

The Environmental Law Institute is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a tax-exempt, charitable organization listed in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions are deductible for federal income, gift and estate tax purposes to the maximum extent permitted by law. (We recommend you consult with a tax attorney or accountant to determine the best way to carry out your lifetime and testamentary objectives).

ELI Legacy Society

1730 M Street, NW, Suite 700
Washington, DC 20036
Tel. 202.939.3800
Fax. 202.939.3868
CFC #10629
Vision
A healthy environment, prosperous economies, and vibrant communities founded on the rule of law.

Mission
The Environmental Law Institute fosters innovative, just, and practical law and policy solutions to enable leaders across borders and sectors to make environmental, economic, and social progress.

Legacy Society
Members of the ELI Legacy Society have designated the Environmental Law Institute as a beneficiary in their will, trust, or other estate planning documents. By taking this important step, Legacy Society members help to carry out ELI’s vision of a healthy environment, prosperous, economies, and vibrant communities founded on the rule of law.

You may join the ELI Legacy Society by doing one or more of the following:

- Including ELI in your will, living trust or testamentary trust.
- Naming ELI as a beneficiary of an insurance policy or retirement plan.
- Making a gift to ELI through a charitable gift annuity, charitable remainder trust or pooled income fund contribution—all of which provide income for the life for you (and then your spouse or significant other, if you so desire) or beneficiaries named by you.
- Transferring readily marketable real estate to ELI, outright or in trust, such as a vacation home, commercial building, or acreage, either currently or as a deferred gift to take effect at death.*
- Gifting assets to a charitable lead trust to provide income to ELI for a number of years before passing them back to you or your name beneficiary or beneficiaries.

Confidential Reply
For information on how to benefit the Environmental Law Institute in your estate plans, please complete this form and return it to the ELI Development Office or call (202) 939-3245.

☐ I have included the Environmental Law Institute in my estate plan.

☐ I would consider including the Environmental Law Institute in my estate plan.

☐ Please send me information on ways to include the Environmental Law Institute in my estate plans:

Name: ____________________________________________
Address: __________________________________________
City: _______________________________________________
State/Zip: __________________________________________
Phone: ____________________________________________
   (home)   (cell)
E-mail: ____________________________________________

*ELI reserves the right to inspect all such property prior to its acceptance