

Josue Pierre

Josue Pierre is an Associate County Attorney with the Office of Law for Prince George's County, Maryland. Mr. Pierre has more than 17 years of experience practicing law in various areas. Currently his practice area includes commercial transaction/finance, government contracts, real estate, public private partnerships and civil litigation. Most recently, Mr. Pierre chaired negotiations on behalf of the County to create the innovative $200 million, 30-year stormwater management public private partnership with Corvias. Mr. Pierre has also worked on commercial loans and grants from the County's $50 million Economic Development Incentive Fund. He is currently providing legal assistance to the County's Dept. of Environment team tasked with negotiating a solar farm P3 as well as a waste to energy P3.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Pierre is a graduate of Andrews University and the George Washington University Law School.