Illegal ASGM site in Tambopata National Reserve Buffer Zone
The regional extent and occurrence of small and large mines throughout the southern Madre de Dios region.
New deforestation driven by small and large gold mining operations in the years 2008–2012, following the global financial recession and the rapid increase in gold prices.
Land use planning – gov’t designated “mining corridor” in 2010
Short, biweekly news roundups (in English) on ASGM issues in Peru available at: