Skokomish Water Quality Program
Skokomish Indian Tribe
Department of Natural Resources

Seth Book
EPA Program Coordinator sbook@skokomish.org

Water Quality Data, Assessment, and Plans
Environmental Law Institute Workshop
June 2nd, 2022
Using the Clean Water Act for Protection of Skokomish Reservation Waters

Reservation:
- South Hood Canal-Salish Sea
- 6085 acres
- 27 miles of stream length

Skokomish Watershed:
- 247 square miles
- Agriculture (lower river valley)
- Flows into Shellfish Beds

The Skokomish River, with Hood Canal and Olympic Mountains
Skokomish Reservation location
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Program</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>EPA Performance</td>
<td>Partnership Grant</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Assistance</td>
<td>Program - Planning, Program Development, Building Capacity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CWA 106</td>
<td>Water Quality Monitoring, QA/QC, Assessment, WQX Submission</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CWA 319</td>
<td>NPS Programs - Education, 319 Assessment and Management Plans</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Using CWA 106 to assess Water Quality

Skokomish Water Quality Monitoring (SWQM) Program

Monitor TMDL sites, Reservation ground and surface waters for Tribal Assessment Report.

Work with WA Dept of Ecology and local jurisdictions to correct off-Reservation pollution sources.
Reporting Data to WA Dept of Ecology

Submit annual summary of data for TMDL sites
Include photo observations
Report WQ violations